CLOSER LOOK: Not surprisingly that he ran a big race in his first start for a sharp trainer and the past five years Miller has a respectable 15 percent strike rate with claimed horses making their second start for him; first time with winners

is never easy but he is trending in the right direction and	d being lightly	raced there could be some upside here; he's probably not t	he winner but can	see him	worki	ng his	way in	nto the bott	om ha	alf of the exot	CS.		,		1010

CLOSER LOOK: Back to dirt after not being much of a threat in a couple of state-bred first-level allowance races on the lawn; considering he's only won on the main track he shouldn't mind the surface switch; two of his three wins came on Tapeta at Golden Gate, though; he will certainly appreciate the easier company plus he is moving back to the distance all of his wins came at; exotics possibility.

CLOSER LOOK: Freshened a couple months and came back to beat $12,500 N2L foes sprinting at SA June 20; tried this level sprinting here July 29 but never really got involved, racing midpack throughout and finishing 5th; nice to see no drop and he gets his first shot at a route; daddy was a sprinter, yes, but he sired the wonderful mare Beholder and you just saw how well she routes, right?; not saying that means this guy will route but at least it's some encouraging news in that regard, and 3 nice works since his last say he's doing well.

CLOSER LOOK: Game win over $12,500 N2L foes at SA Feb. 27; trouble is, after that he wasn't seen again for 5 months; let's face it, you don't normally take a horse who seems to be peaking, as it appeared with this guy, and put him away for that long without good reason; posted a couple so-so 5ths here since coming back, the last sprinting at this level Aug. 13; at least there's no drop and no layoff, though we're routing today and his routes haven't been too hot.

CLOSER LOOk: Fine 2nd vs. open $10K foes routing here July 25; gets a nice move up in price so that speaks of confidence, and while he's up in price he goes from facing open to restricted foes so that offset the class hike some; won routing over $12,500 N2L foes at SA a couple months ago as well; not only was he 2nd here July 25 but that run looks better when you note he was far ahead of the rest (5 1/4 lengths clear of 3rd).

CLOSER LOOK: Had things going well last summer into this winter at SA; alas, things have gone south since; he posted 2 not-so-hot turf sprints at SA this spring, was then 6th on dirt at LRC and a dull 9th (yes, he did have trouble) sprinting at this level here July 29; at least there's no further drop in value and he worked nicely here Aug. 12, but he certainly isn't trending the right way and now he's asked to take on a new distance as well.

CLOSER LOOK: Speedy filly tries turf for the first time in nearly a year after offering little against optional claimers over the local main track; expect she'll again be prominent from the bell in her first spin over this sod but the gals drawn to her immediate outside figure to give her all she can handle from the bell; don't think she'll prove a factor late.

CLOSER LOOK: Got used in pace while facing better in her first start in a year and should be tighter for this one; filly is quick early and she could be able to use that lick to gain a stalking spot off speed drawn to her inside today; though beaten by some of these in her last few outings, the price will be right on a filly who may be set to run a big one.

CLOSER LOOK: Ran well against allowance runners in her first turf sprint try and now she'll drop back to claimers while remaining above the price this outfit paid for her; 4 year old didn't break so well in that last one but she recovered quickly to show a nice turn of foot and given clean start she shouldn't be far off the leaders in this spot either; consider.

CLOSER LOOK: AE tries the lawn for the first time since she was at Lone Star Park in the spring where she ran a solid second at a higher level; like the speed she showed in her local debut run and she has proven she doesn't need the lead to fire; tough outside starting slot but she's worth a look if she goes.

CLOSER LOOK: AE is another who has shown solid early foot but she'll try the green for the first time if she gets to go here; her sire gets about 8% winners from his initial turf starters and the dam was 0 for 3 on the green prior to dropping foals who were a combined 0 for 6 over the stuff.

LOSER LOOK: AE will turn back to sprint while taking a big drop in class off what she faced here earlier in the month if she gets to go; filly is in a barn that's had a rough stand and her interim drills are slow, but she wasn't terrible behind a next out winner when sprinting down the hill in her first start of the year.

CLOSER LOOK: Debut at SA last Oct. 29 was a dud but you can always forgive a first run; start No. 2, when in for a $30k tag here Nov. 28 was quite smart, though, as he added blinkers dueled and prevailed nicely, and Miller saw fit to claim him that day; trouble is, he hasn't been seen since and let's face it, you don't claim a horse merely for the sake of feeding it for 9 months; the good news is he returns without a tag attached but it's still first time vs. winners, he's a question mark on dirt and Beyer-wise he'll need to come back quite a bit better than he was before if he's to contend; and since he returns as a first-time gelding that's not out of reach.

CLOSER LOOK: Headed the right way; can understand that 8th at SA May 2 - heck, it was his first start in a year and a half, but then came a nice 2nd there June 4, a bit of a freshening, a drop and a game win here July 23; Hess Jr. saw fit to claim him that day and it's most encouraging to see him bring this guy back without a tag attached; adds blinkers and there's already tactical speed in his arsenal to be in a good spot from the start.

CLOSER LOOK: It took a while but finally he broke through in try No. 17 and got that elusive diploma; in his defense, he was probably in too deep for many of his prior outings but he perked up in his last 2, which coincidentally came over this track; may have more improvement to show as well, and apparently Van Dyke gets along nicely with him.

CLOSER LOOK: New face from the Midwest showed talent at TDN, winning his debut and rallying well to be a good 2nd there June 15; that being said, that last run came vs. $10K N2L foes - these are surely tougher than those; this also marks his first start out here so he's dealing with new surroundings; returns as a first-time gelding, too; at least the local works are steady and Mr. Hollendorfer does not risk him for a tag and Jerry's not in the Hall of Fame because he puts his horses in the wrong spots; also, Hollendorfer/Gonzalez have been strong together the past 20 months or so (4 for last 10, 40%).

ANALYSIS

First Race

IKE WALKER should win this $16k claiming route for 3yos if he merely reproduces his last start. It was a highly rated runner-up try vs. older in a N3L claiming route. 'WALKER pressed a fast pace and finished more than five clear of third. He was claimed by Vann Belvoir, and returns in a mile race that does not have much other speed. 'WALKER looks tough to deny with a front-running/pace-pressing effort. DOYOUKNOWSOMETHING wheels back less than two weeks after finished second in a N2L claiming route. He finished more than six lengths clear of third, was claimed by Frank Lucarelli, and will be rolling late. WIN QUIETLY is the stranger danger. In from the Midwest and making his first start for trainer Mike Puype, he has a solid enough work pattern and is realistically placed. PAPA KADE drops from N1X and returns to dirt.

Second Race

The debut by TREASURING was better than the margin of defeat (seven and three-quarter lengths). The 2yo filly was cold on the board at 14-1, and ran well in a race that was a total prep. She broke running, then was anchored and not allowed to use speed. Taken to the inside in the back half of the field, she steadied and was shuffled at the three-eighths, split horses into the lane, finished steadily and galloped out with run. It was a promising debut by by the Smart Strike filly whose dam Teeming is a sibling to G1 winners Rags to Riches and Jazil. Teeming already produced G1 winner Streaming; TREASURING wants this two-turn mile distance, and should be tough to beat. If she wins, her next stop could be the G1 Chandelier Sept. 26 at Santa Anita. TREASURING is trained by Bob Baffert, who also entered JADE PRINCESS. The latter worked well into her debut, got bet to 6-5, but was bumped and shuffled leaving the gate, then went evenly the rest of the way. She worked well since, and might have more speed than she showed. ALBEIT stretches out with two sprints under her belt. She was considered a two-turn filly all along; this is her first try at it.

Third Race

The first leg of the pick six includes a logical favorite in SINFULLY, claimed two starts back from a runner-up finish. He broke slowly last time on turf and trailed throughout. It was a toss. Back on dirt, dropping to $16k claiming N3L, the gelding has the highest dirt figures by a significant margin. According to the overnight, SINFULLY is scheduled to be ridden by Agapito Delgadillo, who has not ridden in a race since April. ANTINANCO finished second last out after breaking from post 10 and being caught wide every step of the way. He finished more than five lengths clear of third, and is not really moving up in class (open $10k, to $16k N3L). He has enough speed to be forwardly placed; that has been the winning profile recently at a mile on dirt. OKAAD drops in class, second start back from a long layoff. CITY STATE drops off a claim while returning to dirt. He is trained by Mike Puype, who also entered stretch-out sprinter GEORGE'S MAIN MAN.

Fourth Race

SWEET PROFIT benefitted from a perfect trip/ride last out, third in a N1X turf sprint. She saved every inch of ground, angled out and missed by only a length and a half. While undeniably flattered by her trip, her effort also was an improved effort first off the claim by Vann Belvoir and trying a turf sprint for the first time. While she might not get the same trip this time from post 8 (last time post 3), but she does seem to be an improved filly in a race that has enough suspect speed to flatter her closing rally as she shows up for a $40k claim tag. NOT TOO SHINY merely went through the motions last time in a return from a layoff of nearly four months. That race looks like it was merely a prep. She has a history of improving second start back, and drops from N2X to claiming. FRISCO FOG is pure speed, but faces an early challenge from class dropper MARK OF A GEM. The latter once would have crushed a field like this. She seems to have tailed off, but the drop could wake her up.

Fifth Race

HANK THE TANK makes his career debut for a trainer that excels with this type. The past five summers at Del Mar, Peter Miller is 8-for-23 with juvenile first-time starters in maiden-claiming races. Sharp works at San Luis Rey Downs, purchased for $77k and entered for $80k, it all makes sense. He may have to catch speedball dropper BIG FINISH. The latter showed speed and faded two starts vs. special-weight maidens, and now drops for the first time into a maiden-claiming sprint. He is quick enough to clear the field from the inside, likely to show the way into the lane, and could be long gone. The top pair are difficult to separate. AUTUMN BLITZ finished second both starts vs. special-weight maidens on the Northern California Fair circuit. I'M NOT BULLISH has speedy works. Maidens from this stable usually do better with racing, however.

Sixth Race

KYANKES looks tough to beat in this $32k claiming turf route for 3yo fillies, based on a sharp third last out. She was wheeling back in just 17 days, might have hit the front too soon, and was worn down. The race turned out to be live. The fifth- and eighth-place finishers came back to win; the winner returned to miss by a neck for a $50k tag. Meanwhile, KYANKES drops a notch first off the claim by Bob Hess Jr., has had a month between starts, and figures for a cozy trip forwardly placed saving ground with the turf rails at 30 feet. HOUSEMAKER finished in front of the top choice last time out, rallying from the back. She probably is the best late threat. TAKE BACK SPRING split the field in a promising comeback, only two lengths back. Blinkers are on.

Seventh Race

A trainer switch, shorter distance, turf-to-dirt footing change and bullet workout on the main track last week suggests ALL RUN can improve in her first start since moving into the barn of Richard Baltas. The horse that 'RUN dueled with last time (Devil Rising) came back to upset last week. OVERCOMER returns from a five-month layoff. His Cal-bred maiden-50 win in March was sharp; he is quick enough to set or press the pace. GRAVITY FORCE figures as a contender based on his maiden win one month ago. He was claimed by Hess, adds blinkers, and obviously likes this track. ALWAYS NEVER makes his first start since he was claimed in November for $30k. He has been gelded since, and has a good comeback trainer calling the shots. 'NEVER might be ranked too low by this handicapper.

Eighth Race

RICKLES finally got a good trip, and finished second in a similar Cal-bred maiden-claiming race for 2yos. The extra furlong of this six-furlong race should be fine. He is a tepid choice only. BUSSJAEGER flashed speed and faded in his debut vs. Cal-bred special-weight foes. He is likely to improve second time out. TRIBAL ZEN was a well-bet disappointment in his debut. Gelded since raced, in for a tag, the shipper shows up in an apparently soft race. MOOSE SKOWRON is a Grazen first-time starter out of a dam whose first five runners are all winners including four multiple winners.
